

Eco Fair from April 22nd to the 24th

Who is afraid of the Light Brown Apple Moth?

LBAM Spray Teach-In

Wed., April 23rd, Noon to 2 P.M.

BCC Downstairs Auditorium

A teach-in about the political, environmental and human health implications of the proposed Light Brown Apple Moth (LBAM) Spraying this summer in the Bay Area with speakers:

Pauline Bondanno, Berkeley Unified School District, Health Educator

Jerry Cross, Diablo Valley College, Psychology

Tara Levy, Naturopathic Doctor

Michael Parenti, PhD, Author, Scholar

Maxina Ventura, East Bay Pesticide Alert, DontSprayCalifornia.org

Nan Wishner, Chair, Albany Integrated Pest Management Task Force

Moderator/Facilitator: Mickey Huff, BCC, History, Critical Thinking, Media Studies

Contact information:

Mickey Huff, event organizer, mhuff@peralta.edu, 510.798.6251

This event is part of the BCC Eco-Fair and is free and open to the public, wheelchair accessible. BCC, part of the Peralta Community College District, is located at 2050 Center Street, one block west of the Downtown Berkeley BART.

